Privacy Policy – Update October 2019

The Society of the Frant Pantomime and Dramatic Society - privacy policy

The Society of the Frant Pantomime and Dramatic Society will be referred to in this document as “FPDS”.

FPDS respects the privacy of its customers and we hold a record of customers’ past bookings so that we can improve our own customer service. This information is collected lawfully and in accordance with GDPR. We take your privacy seriously and do not pass on any customer records to other companies or organisations.

When you register with FPDS you will be asked to provide certain information about yourself.

What information do we collect and how do we obtain it?

If you register with us you will be asked to provide certain information such as your name, address, telephone number and email address so that we can process and fulfil your booking, notify you of your booking status and inform you of future productions and Events.

How do we use your information?

We use the information that we collect about you to:

1. Process your booking.
2. Promoting FPDS and services of third parties where we believe you may be interested, but we will not provide your information to third parties.

Your marketing preferences

We will always respect your wishes in respect of what type of communications you want to receive from us and how you want to receive them. There are some communications, however, that we need to send you regardless of your marketing preferences in order for us to fulfil our contractual obligations to you as customers.

You are in control of how we communicate with you. You can update your choices and/or your contact details by contacting us at:
